Empathy Map Canvas:

An Empathy Map helps us step into the shoes of our target users—commuters, traffic authorities, and city planners—so we can understand their pain points, needs, and goals related to traffic congestion and travel planning.

Creating this empathy map was an essential step in shaping a solution that is not only functional but genuinely user-centered. By exploring what users think, feel, see, say, do, and hear, we ensured that TrafficTelligence addresses real challenges with practical, intuitive outcomes.
